

THESE EVIL SPIRIT VOICES SPEAK

(PART ONE)

(POEM)

These evil spirit voices speak

They speak a lot

Right now

They speak to me

Through the noise

Through the night

Through the invisible wind

They'll speak

They are voices

And they'll bombard

With voices

If you channel spirits

They could speak

And they'll keep on

Speaking night and day

These are not

The good spirits

These are spirits

Who speak

As their weapon

If you do EVP

They can come out

Of the recordings

And speak

they will be
in your room
at night
and speak
into your ears

the scientist may say that it isn't so
but I believe
they don't know

there are spirits here and some of them are evil and some of them
will speak
through walls
and floors

there are
other dimensions here
interacting
other worlds
interacting
other planes of existence

and in some of them
there are beings

who use voices
as a weapon

if you let them in
to your perceptions
and speak
and can push you
to the edge
of a chasm

push you to the edge
of an abyss
so dark and deep

when they speak
when they hurl
audio thorns
audio daggers

when they make it rain
audio stones

when alone
at night
in silence
that is not silence

voices transcend

the boundaries
of somewhere

here I go

off to bed

to hear them speaking

of mad things
in my head
